

Write the sentences correcting the mistakes:

1. I went to the India in 1996.
2. I am knowing know all the grammar, but it's difficult to remember.
3. She went to work with the by bus every day.
4. Who help helps you to do your homework every day?
5. Your answer is very interested interesting. I like it a lot.
6. I 'm not agree disagree: this exercise is very easy.
7. He must has have been on holiday.
8. I have been in United States since for a year.
9. They asked me where is the bank the bank was.
10. I haven't have never visited this country.